LENDA LISTENS: THE WEEK AHEAD

(Murfreesboro, Tenn., August 15, 2014) – Lenda Sherrell, a certified public accountant and candidate for Tennessee’s Congressional District 4, has launched a listening tour to hear the views of today’s youth, working class families and seniors. The listening tour will make stops in towns across the 4th District, which includes all or parts of 16 counties stretching from Murfreesboro in middle Tennessee to the eastern portion with Cleveland in Bradley County.

Monday, August 18, 3:30-4:30p.m., EYES Program, Moore Park Enrichment Center, corner of corner of 1st Street and North Magnolia Ave, South Pittsburgh. Lenda Sherrell discusses education and school readiness with former State Senator and Chattanooga Mayor Andy Berke, and program founders Lorraine and Monroe Powers. Serving the needs of Marion County school children since 1999, Educating Youth Ensures Success (EYES) provides after-school tutoring.

Tuesday, August 19, 6-8 p.m. UAW Local 1853, 125 Stephen P. Yokich Pkwy, Spring Hill. Lenda Sherrell will join supporters and community members making outreach calls to fellow Maury County voters. Focused on civic engagement, the Sherrell campaign engages voters brought up in a state steeped in strong Tennessee volunteer traditions. Sherrell seeks to encourage community involvement while educating voters about the issues and values shared by Middle Tennesseans.

Thursday, August 21, 11:30 a.m. Lenda Listens makes a tour stop at the Middle Tennessee Rural Re-entry program to discuss successes at the highly-acclaimed Middle Tennessee Rural Reentry Program, which has dropped recidivism by 50% through job training and work placements services. Afterward, she joins supporters and community leaders at The Cook’s Market, 21 Chattin Boulevard, Decherd, Franklin County.

Friday, August 22, 11:30a.m. Access and affordability are the topics of discussion during the Lenda Listens tour stop with college students following a tour of Motlow State Community College in Smyrna. The Smyrna campus in Rutherford County is Motlow’s fastest growing center, containing technology enhanced classrooms and computer labs. Sherrell will meet with students at Fat Mo’s Burgers, 298 Sam Ridley Pkwy E #100, Smyrna.
